VENDOR POLICY

The Apostolic Crusaders recognizes the desire of the Assemblies of the Lord Jesus Christ (ALJC) membership and those individuals who are not members of the ALJC to make beneficial products and services available to the ministers and churches of the ALJC. At National Youth Convention (NYC), the Apostolic Crusaders choose to make a limited amount of display and table space available in order to allow vendors the opportunity to advertise and market their products and services. The remaining space available after the departments of the ALJC have been allotted space will be reserved on a first-come, first-served basis. Members of the ALJC will have precedence over non-member vendors. All open space not reserved at least 2 weeks prior to the opening of the subject national conference may be reserved without regard to membership preference restrictions.

The Apostolic Crusaders reserves the right to refuse display space and/or tables to any vendor that it deems as displaying material, goods or services that it believes to be inappropriate, in conflict with or unfairly in competition with ALJC organization member displays, in conflict with the ALJC interpretation of its Biblical beliefs and Statement of Faith, or that conflict with or are inconsistent with written policies of the ALJC Board of Publications.

In respect of this organization's beliefs and holiness standards, appropriate, modest dress is required of all vendors at all times. During the time that a table or display is in operation, dress shirts and dress slacks, or suits are to be worn by men; dresses or blouses with skirts that have hemlines below the knee must be worn by women. Sleeveless blouses or shirts are not permitted. During setup and tear down of displays, modest apparel must be worn. Women may wear modest, casual dresses or blouses and modest skirts; men may dress in casual attire.

At no time is any item- clothing or any item for display or sale- permitted to be worn or displayed that exhibits or infers inappropriate or obscene information or pictures. Failure to follow these rules may result in an immediate cancellation of display and vending privileges and loss of all fees paid to the ALJC for those privileges. The ALJC General Board and its interpretation of the ALJC Statement of Faith and Biblical beliefs is the governing authority with regard to all vendors, their displays, and allowable services and products.

By requesting space at NYC, all vendors accept and agree to abide by these requirements and the policy stated herein.

For the 2011 National Youth Convention, ALJC department/district per table fee is $50.00. Fee per table for ALJC endorsed groups and members of churches pastored by an ALJC minister is $ 50.00. All non-ALJC displays/vendors per table fee is $100. All display 120VAC electrical hookups are an extra $20 and it is the vendors responsibility to provide adequate extension cords, power strips, etc. for their booth. THESE FEES DO NOT INCLUDE REGISTRATION TO NYC MORNING OR EVENING SERVICES. Each attendee should register for NYC @ www.apostoliccrusaders.org.

All Display locations will be assigned by the NYC Vendor Coordinator. Requests for specific locations must be made at the time of reservation and will be honored if possible, as space and hotel policies permit.
